To live Ethical Commitments, we must maintain behavior ou, acting according to our values and following the guidelines established in this Guide a complete and honest activities. For the Company, there is no purpose that justifies behaving outside the Ethical Commitments outlined here, so our position on corruption and bribery is that of zero tolerance.

To achieve this—and to ensure compliance with the Company guidelines and policies—we have the Corporate Ethics Committee, which reports to the Audit Committee made up of members of the Board of Directors. Below, we present our Ethical Commitments and some guidelines for greater clarity. We invite you to familiarize yourself with them and fully live them daily.

THREE QUESTIONS TO BE CLEAR

WHAT DO WE EXPECT FROM OUR PEOPLE?

The commitment to contribute to the strengthening of our culture, which brings us closer to living our purpose daily, whilst always thinking of acting with integrity and in line with our values.

This will allow us to prevent risks and build relationships, based on respect and trust, with our different stakeholders, projecting integrity and safeguarding the Company's reputation.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I AM BEHAVING IN LINE WITH OUR ETHICAL COMMITMENTS?

Before acting or making any decision we must ask ourselves:

- Is my decision in accordance with our corporate values?
- Is my decision in line with our Ethical Commitments?
- Is what I am doing, or witnessing allowed or legal?
- Could it harm my reputation or that of the Company?

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I KNOW OF ANY BREACH OR IRREGULARITY TO OUR GUIDE TO ETHICAL COMMITMENTS?

We promote an environment of honesty and transparency.

Therefore, in , an irregular situation case, we must communicate it using any of learning of three channels:

- Communicating y to the immediate supervisor or superior: Report the conflict situation to your supervisor or direct superior, area manager or director.
- Communicating these to Human Resources: You can report the case to the Human Resources leader of your choice; for example, to your Manager or to your Human Resources Business Partner.
